Ableman, Michael & Herman, Jeanne-Marie	Foxglove Farm 1200 Mt. Maxwell Rd., V8K 2H7 250-537-1989 www.foxglovefarmbc.ca info@foxglovefarmbc.ca	Foxglove Farm is a 120-acre organic farm and education centre. The farm is located on one of the oldest homesteads on the island, surrounded by protected forest, pastures and fields, and bordering on pristine Mt. Maxwell Lake. Foxglove Farm offers accommodations and retreats in beautifully restored cabins and in the original log home on one of the island's finest heritage working farm properties. The farm produces berries, asparagus, melons, greens, roots, a wide range of Mediterranean vegetables, as well as diverse orchard fruits. We also produce grains and pulses, manage a flock of pastured laying hens and produce pork. We have 40 years of organic agriculture experience. Foxglove Farm is home to the centre of Arts, Ecology and Agriculture. The Centre was established to demonstrate and interpret the vital connections between farming, land stewardship, food, the arts and community wellbeing. Public programs, classes and events are offered throughout the summer and fall.
